class full

This one-day course is designed to provide the student with concepts and theories of the ethical decision-making process, help you recognize the signs of an ethical dilemma, identify advantages and disadvantages of ethical behavior, and an opportunity to review examples of classroom situations in which instructors used their leadership role to either encourage or discourage ethical behavior. Participants in this class will examine ethics, values, principles, and morality.

Code of Conduct: Appropriate dress for class is required. It is the student's responsibility to maintain a clean, neat and professional appearance. Some courses may require the wearing of uniforms or special attire. Course coordinators and/or course announcements may specify either a style or type of dress for a specific course.

Acceptable dress includes:

- Department Uniform
- Males: Casual business slacks and shirt with collar
- Females: Casual business slacks and shirt with collar or blouse, or business dress
